

Château AMOUR - CRU BOURGEOIS Médoc - Cru Bourgeois

PRESENTATION

Château DE PANIGON where is produced Château Amour, is spread over 90 hectares in the Médoc appellation; 50 hectares are currently in production, located around and in proximity to the château buildings. The vineyard is situated on some of the finest gravel outcrops in the Médoc.

The owners place as much value on making the wine as on growing the grapes. The most modern equipment is used in the most traditional manner, and the cellar allows the entire harvest to be aged in oak barrels. The entire production is château-bottled.

The wine is fruity and aromatic, with dense and elegant tannins; it enjoys a well-deserved reputation. The production facilities as well as the château itself are regularly renovated and improved.

TASTING

The wine presents a deep garnet colour with red hints.

The wine is fruity and aromatic (floral, fruity and spicy notes), with dense and elegant tannins; it enjoys a well-deserved reputation.

The finish is fresh, persistent and evolves on toffee and ripe fruits notes.
